Employee Acknowledgment of Workers' Compensation Network

I have received information that tells me how to get health care under my employer's workers' compensation insurance.

If I am hurt on the job and live in a service area described in this information, I understand that:

1. I must choose a treating doctor from the list of doctors in the network. Or, I may ask my HMO primary care physician to agree to serve as my treating doctor. If I select my HMO primary care physician as my treating doctor, I will call Texas Mutual at (800) 859-5995 to notify them of my choice.
2. I must go to my treating doctor for all health care for my injury. If I need a specialist, my treating doctor will refer me. If I need emergency care, I may go anywhere.
3. The insurance carrier will pay the treating doctor and other network providers.
4. I might have to pay the bill if I get health care from someone other than a network doctor without network approval.
5. Knowingly making a false workers' compensation claim may lead to a criminal investigation that could result in criminal penalties such as fines and imprisonment.

Receipt of Notice of COBRA Continuation of Coverage Rights

I _____ confirmed that Larios DESIGN Corp DBA Canales Furniture has given me the proper verbal information and the Notice of COBRA Continuation of Coverage Rights handbook.

I was informed that COBRA requires continuation coverage to be offered to covered employees, their spouses, former spouses, and dependent children when group health coverage would otherwise be lost due to certain specific events. Group health coverage for COBRA participants is often more expensive than the amount that active employees are required to pay, since the employer usually pays 50% on Medical Insurance only of the cost of employees' coverage and 100% of cost will be charged to individuals receiving continuation coverage.

I also understand that if I resigned of work in the middle of the month, I will be 100% responsible to pay the cost of 50% employee contribution for the last month, authorizing Larios DESIGN Corp DBA Canales Furniture to deduct monthly amount out of my last payroll check.

By signing this form, I agree with the information above.
